

Get Ready!

Do you think you could pray more and pray better? I know I could. And I would love more dedication to praying together as God's family. That's why I'm looking forward to the kickoff of a springtime that is "Devoted to Prayer." That theme comes from Romans 12:12. It's one of the habits that follows this heading some Bible publishers print above Romans 12:19-21: Marks of the True Christian. If prayer is a challenge to you, you're in good company. Jesus' handpicked disciples (who were Jewish and surely already praying people) made a special request after they had spent quite a bit of time with him: "Lord, teach us to pray..." (Luke 11:1).

Our Sunday morning messages from March through May will focus on prayer. Our Sunday evening gatherings will, too, in a variety of formats. Every weekday we will read (1) a Bible passage about prayer and (2) some encouragement from a fellow Christian who has already read that passage. One of our Wednesday night class options will have still more to do with prayer. We're getting a wonderful opportunity; it will be up to each of us to pray more and learn to pray better. I think we'll love more than ever to pray because we'll love more than ever the One who is listening.

Be sure to pick up the book(s) bearing your name or family name at the back of the auditorium. We'll start reading them Monday, March 2. We have lots of extra copies for you to take and share with people you love. You've already helped to pay for the books with your Sunday giving. They're also available on Amazon. Invite someone to learn and worship with us!
