Our seminar with Lonnie Jones is only two weeks away!

When Christians spend time together, good things happen. God planned it that way (Acts 2:42-47)! God gets glory, and Christians grow, connect, serve, and share the magnetism of the gospel with others. For all these reasons and more, we're planning a little extra time together Friday to Sunday, May 1-3.

We're excited to welcome Lonnie Jones here from Huntsville, Alabama. Many of our teens and others have been with Lonnie numerous times and found lots of insight from Scripture for living and thriving. Lonnie is a minister, counselor, educator, police chaplain, adventurer, husband, father, grandfather and more. He would love to encourage you with his podcast, Keeping Up With Jones: The Lonnie Jones Podcast Adventure, too.

Here's the schedule...

FRIDAY

6 PM Dinner
7 PM Who Am I? Spiritual Self Identity

SATURDAY

4 PM Suffering Is a Process, Hope Is the Outcome
5:15 PM Questions and Answers (for Parents and Other Adults)
6 PM Dinner
7 PM Faith and Circumstances

SUNDAY

9 AM The Body of Christ
10 AM Walking Worthy

Dinner will be provided in the activities center Friday and Saturday nights. You don't have to bring anything, and you can invite everyone! Saturday evening, friends from around the area will be with us, too; that part of our weekend will be the Tri-State Youth Series—but the sessions are for all of us, not just young people. Sunday evening at 6:00, we'll have our usual Sunday night worship assembly with an emphasis on prayer.

Will you give a little extra time that Friday and Saturday to the maintenance and growth of your soul? And will you invite someone else to come learn how life in Christ answers so many needs that they feel?

I Must, I Can, and I Will

By Dalton Key

*God's will for me is simple to see,
His purpose decisively taught;
I must always rejoice, unceasingly pray,
And give thanks no matter what.*

*God knows what is best, whatever my test,
And leaves me with this precious thought;
I can always rejoice, unceasingly pray,
And give thanks no matter what.*

*Believing His word, I'm fully assured,
God loves me no matter my lot;
I will always rejoice, unceasingly pray,
And give thanks no matter what.*
